

Heartbroken:

Lyrics by Captain Mission "the deep fix"

You go dancing in the night clubs
Because you know the dj's
Kiss a multitude of strangers
And that's the price you paid
To loose yourself to drugs
Make mine a dark white Russian
Just to feel good in my absence
As the blood starts rushing

Cover up your feelings
Don't let down your mask
Keep your head together
Just don't break your heart

You go back to the safety
Of an ex lover
He may have been abusive to ya
But he gets on with your mother
Block out your emotions
I dare you to feel pure love
As your sliding down the spiral
I'll wave as i rise up

It hurts to see you broken
It hurt to see us part
But that hurt compares to nothing
Now I've a broken heart

So keep your candles burning
And a smile on your face
You left me in the distance
And I'm drowning in your wake
You remove me from existence
And i will cease to be
Just a shadow of ex love x
Wiped from memory

I'll howl up at the full moon
About the words you'd spoken
But there's nothing that can fix
My heart, because it's broken.

Yeah heart broken
Who's loving you now.....
Heartbroken.
