

Adventures in Love

Lyrics by "Captain Mission" the deep fix

You think she comes from heaven
You think she is so sweet
You think there's an angel
Fallen at your feet
But now you're not so certain
You've had a little taste
Standing in her doorway
About to meet your fate

If you marry her beauty
To all your earthly ties
All the truth that you longed for
Just a pack of lies
And your heart starts beating
Fear on your tongue
Thinking about her words
And the damage that she's done

Looking for adventures in love

Seeking out the extremes
The highs and the lows
Till she gets to a point
Where there's no where else to go
Give her sex and danger
At the razors edge
Winners only lose
Once you place your bets

Looking for adventures in love

Now you want her badly
But not enough that you betray
The one thing that makes you
The person you are today
So you drive across the border
For the surf and the sun
Start a new life in a new town
Hope you meet someone

Looking for adventures in Love

The years fly by so quickly
They are catching up with you
Life may find you content
But there's nothing you can do
To stop the inevitable conclusion
Romance left unfinished
And when it comes you can see
Her beauty undiminished

Looking for adventures in love

Seeking out the extremes
Looking for an ending
Where there's none to be had
Not sure if you're happy
Not sure if she's sad
